Men of Christ celebrate 5th Anniversary!

Men of Christ is a CPC men's fellowship group that meets for breakfast on the second Saturday of each month. We celebrated our fifth anniversary this month!

Our breakfast meetings are filled with fellowship activities which have ranged from programmed activities in the early years to conversation about everything from family to church to current events as the group has evolved.

We are defined by our commitment to our faith in God and to active membership in Christ Presbyterian Church. We answer CPC calls for assistance with activities that require strong back/weak minds (more of the latter than the former), occasionally preparing and serving all-church meals and, our specialty, helping CPC families with repairs around the house. Most of us can be accurately described as reasonably-amiable, marginally-talented, more-or-less honest, somewhat frequent bathers and, in most instances, we do not chew, spit, smoke or drink hard liquor on the job. Think 1 Corinthians 13 with the following disclaimers: "[We] are usually patient and kind, not jealous but we are boastful, we are typically not arrogant and seldom rude. We frequently insist on our own way (particularly in political discussions) but are seldom irritable or resentful; we do not rejoice in wrong but rejoice, nay, we exult(!) in the right! (Or the left depending on your politics.) When we were children we spoke, thought and acted like children and sometimes we still do.

We are pretty good companions for families that need respite care. If you have a household task and have the necessary materials or parts and we think we have the skill, we'll try to find a convenient time to tackle the job.

CPC Graduates Recognized May 18

During the service on Sunday, May 18, our four graduating Seniors were recognized and presented with special — school specific — “survival” baskets. Following worship, they were treated to cake during fellowship time.

We wish Chase Bilyou, Kyle Floetker, Jessica King and Sam Roeschlein the best of luck at their new schools. Pictures of the grads and their families below, courtesy of Roger Howard.
